

LUTHERVILLE RETAINS ITS CHARM!

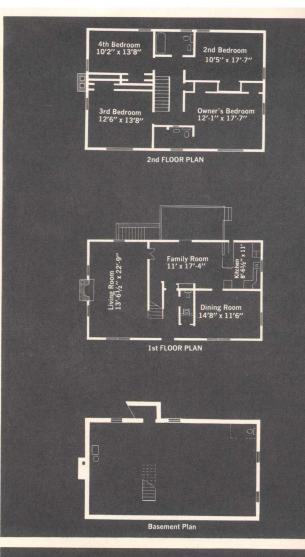

Clamor, clutter, chatter, hustle, bustle, push, change, run, scream. Bah, humbug!

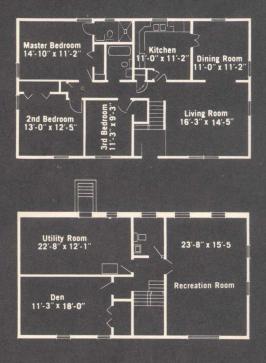

Grand old Lutherville retains its easy country charm and soft manners. Here on Maryland's rambling, unshaken countryside...The James Keelty Co. presents Longford North. A time-tested location...a time-tested builder.

LORGE CHILDING

A time-tested location and a time-tested builder meet... at Longford North. Though fads come and go, genuine values abide in grand old Lutherville. Its fresh country charm stays on and on . . . to the delight of Lutherville folk. Only 18 minutes from downtown, Lutherville refuses to bow to the city look or a harsh city tempo. How natural that the builder of Longford North should be The James Keelty Co. With a reputation strengthened by every one of 12,000 homes, a Keelty home speaks permanence and security. Since 1904. Baltimore has recognized this sincere and uncompromising craftsmanship. Now this time-tested builder takes great pride in presenting a memorable offering of homes . . . Longford North.

THE TALBOT is a 4 bedroom, 2 story colonial with all the natural easy charm of Lutherville. Generous proportions, excellent traffic plan. A million miles from care . . . but only eighteen minutes from downtown Baltimore. The Talbot is tailored to your taste for a fine colonial and built to the exacting standards of Keelty workmanship.

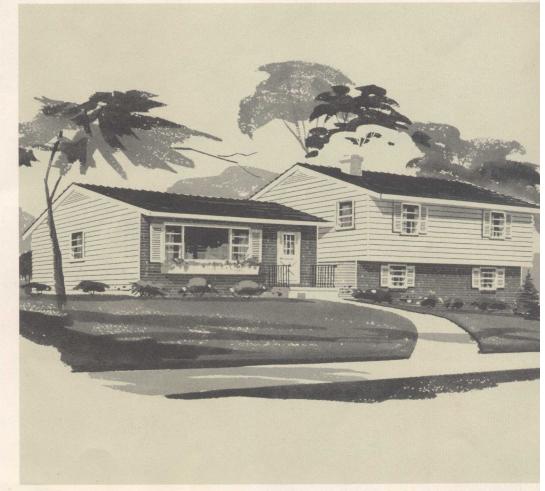

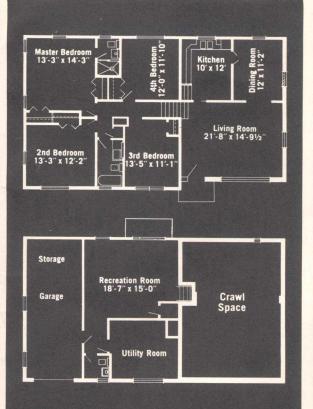

THE ARLINGTON is a raised-foyer home with typical Lutherville hospitality. From the foyer, enter the complete upper living level, with bedrooms, 2 baths, living room and dining room. Just several steps down from the entrance foyer is your large Recreation Room, a Den, and a Utility Room. See the integrity of architecture, the wealth of fine detailing.

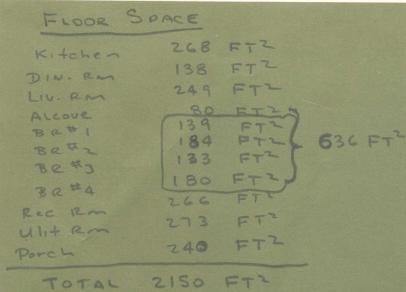

THE KENILWORTH, a 4 bedroom, 2½ bath split-level with the attention to detail and consummate craftsmanship typical of Keelty. The lower level provides an abundance of space for recreation and hobbies: Recreation Room, Utility Room and Garage and Storage Room. Old-fashioned pride of craft lives in this Keelty-built home.

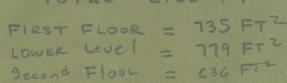

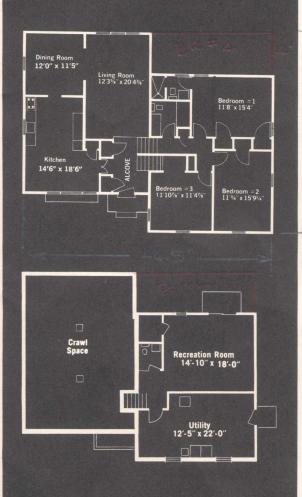

THE RUXTON is a 3 bedroom, 2 bath split-level with the grace of line, the handsome style-touches and superb construction you expect from Baltimore's oldline builder. Two of the bedrooms are master size. Charming Entrance Foyer. Designed to please the active family, with Recreation Room and Utility Room on the lower level. So charming in its serene, country-fresh setting, it's hard to believe that you're only 18 minutes from downtown Baltimore.
